About us

St Andrew's College is a residential college located within the University of Sydney. The College is five kilometres away from Sydney CBD, and is within walking distance to Newtown.

Filming & Photography

As a heritage listed site, St Andrew's also provides a dramatic backdrop for filming and photography and makes it one of the most unique venues in Sydney.

We can accommodate large commercial projects, feature films, documentaries and portrait shoots. We offer a spectacular iconic site, as well as heritage listed libraries, boutique meeting rooms, stained glass windows, outdoor sport facilities, bedrooms and wide common spaces as the backdrop for any filming projects.

Make up and wardrobe rooms can easily be arranged by our Events Team for your convenience.

Premium Catering

St Andrew's prides itself on providing a premium catering experience onsite daily by St Andrew's chefs. Buffet lunch or dinner can be easily organised for your crew.

Parking

We have a private parking lot available for more than 20 cars, vans and trucks to suit your project needs.

Pre-filming approval

If you plan to undertake any filming, interview or photography at the St Andrew's College you will need to apply for a permit.

Simply contact our Events Team by phone or email, and they will check availability and provide you with a customised quotation. To assist with your venue hire enquiry, please tell us what kind of venue you are looking to have.

Our friendly and knowledgeable staff will gladly assist on the best location for your shoot and create a smooth experience for your crew at the College.

We recommend a minimum of ten business days to process requests.

Common spaces

St Andrew's College is set within four hectares of picturesque grounds and the unique surrounds reflects our Scottish heritage and we have many common spaces available for hire. Our gardens, grounds and architecture provide a unique backdrop for a range of filming and photography projects.

The college has been used as a location for documentaries, interviews, short films, television productions, weddings and portrait photography.

Please contact our Events team if you would like to come for a site visit to see all that St Andrew's has to offer. We guarantee that you will find more spaces and rooms when you will be walking around the College.

Libraries

St Andrew's libraries feature wooden furniture, signature heritage walls, bookcases, stained glass windows, hand painted silk ceiling and designer lighting. This is the ideal location for meetings, corporate functions, product launches and commercial projects.

The libraries are emblematic of the grand Scottish castle style of the interior of the College and walls lined with antique literature. It's a unique space befitting to any commercial filming projects, meetings and dinner functions.

 Main Library (the most popular filming location)

 Spann Library

 Dining hall - a grand space with the capacity to seat up to 186 guests (covid safe 2sq m). Decorated in a traditional academic style, the Dining Hall is a magical space for functions, from formal dinners by candlelight to wonderfully presented buffet luncheons. Surround yourself with 150 years of history with a crested high ceiling, antique trophies and Psalters.

 Chapel - the College is happy to make the Chapel available to those who wish to hold services marking special occasions in their post-university life. The Chapel also features a baby grand piano, a small pipe organ, and a fine acoustic, providing a good space for concerts.

 Reading room - as the name suggests, original literature lines its walls, and a fireplace and portraiture add to its traditional ambiance. A sunny position and décor make it a comfortable space for a variety of functions such as buffet meals, interviews, formal dining and conference lectures.

Sport facilities

Sports facilities are available for a wide range of uses including film and television shoots, corporate events, product launches and so much more.

St Andrew's Oval is a multi-purpose sporting facility located within four hectares of picturesque grounds. The Oval can be used for any sports - from cricket to football to soccer and also provides excellent flexibility. This unique private outdoor event space is ideal for open-air cinema, team-building, carnivals, corporate events and media functions

Below is a list of the sportsgrounds that we manage that are available for hire.
