St Andrew's College
Principal's Prize for Poetry 2019

PURPOSE
The competition aims to promote expression of creative thought about aspects of "College life" through poetry.

TOPIC
Any topic or title within the broad theme of 'Still Life'

PRIZE
The winner will receive $1,000 to be awarded at the Valedictory Dinner on the Thursday 7 November, 2019.

The judges reserve the right to decline to make an award if there is insufficient merit in the entrant pool.

PUBLICATION
The winning entry, and selected others, will be published on the College website.

JUDGES
The competition will be judged by a panel comprising the Vice Principal, Senior Tutor and St Andrew's Student's Club cultural representative.
The panel's decision upon the award is final. NO correspondence will be entered into regarding the judges' decision.

CONTENT
Poems should be in English, and a maximum of 40 lines. The work must be original, unpublished, and not part of a larger work. It should be based on the author's personal creative thought and not merely reproduce or summarise other material.

SUBMISSIONS
Poems must be submitted on paper with a cover sheet containing the entrant's name. This sheet will be removed prior to judging to ensure anonymity. NO marks identifying the author may appear in the work submitted to the judges.

Poems should be typed double spaced on one side of the paper only.

ELIGIBILITY
The competition is open to all current students of St Andrew's College engaged in either undergraduate or postgraduate study. This year we are offering students the chance to take part in a writing workshop to assist them to further develop their writing skills. Applicants for the prize are welcome to use the workshop to work on their entry.

CLOSING DATE
All entries must be received by 5:00pm Friday 18 October

The winner will be notified by Friday 1 November

ADDRESS
Entries should be handed to Gigi Rahman in the Principal's Office, in an envelope, and marked:

Principal's Prize for Poetry 2019